

I.

The position of Primary Care/OMM Faculty participates in the organization and delivery of the educational and research programs related to family medicine, osteopathic manipulative medicine and primary care at the Edward Via College of Osteopathic Medicine, Auburn Campus. This position encompasses educational, clinical and research components.

II.

1B 1. Participate in the planning and the delivery of the Experience: Residency Completion (field of specialty rotation or equivalent credentials); Board Eligible/Board Certified; clinical practice experience in specialty field; experience with the education of medical students and/or residents in an academic setting

Other skills important to this position:

- Excellent interpersonal and communications skills
- Strong team player
- Commitment to company values
- Basic computer proficiency

Preferences may be given to applicants who possess any or all the following skills or attributes:

- General knowledge in primary care and rural/underserved medicine

