

Residency. Operationally, he serves as a CCATT (Critical Care Aeromedical Transport Team) medical director and physician team lead, leading a three person whose missions involve the evacuation of severely ill or wounded warriors on a variety of airframes.

Major Rawlins attended and graduated cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Chemistry from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. Major Rawlins commissioned into the United States Air Force Health Professions Scholarship Program and began medical school at the Via College of Osteopathic Medicine Virginia Campus in 2006. He graduated with Sigma Sigma Phi

THE FIRST LAW of the United States of America enacted in the first session of the first Congress on June 1, 1789, was statute 1, chapter 1:
an act to regulate the time and manner of administering certain oaths, which established the oath required by civil and military officials to support the Constitution.